Legal Awareness Program on the NALSA SPRUHA Scheme, 2025

A Legal Awareness Program on the NALSA SPRUHA Scheme, 2025 was organized by the Faculty of Law, The ICFAI University Himachal Pradesh, in collaboration with the District Legal Services Authority Solan at the BDO Office, Patta. The program was attended by Kuldeep Singh, BDO Patta, along with around 20 local participants. A team comprising 6 students and 2 faculty members visited the venue and conducted the session. The participants were made aware of the objectives and benefits of the SPRUHA Scheme, particularly focusing on support for dependents of prisoners and victims of crime, as well as the availability of free legal aid and welfare measures.

During the program, efforts were also made to identify potential beneficiaries by requesting attendees to share details of eligible individuals or families in need of assistance. The program received a positive response and successfully contributed to spreading legal awareness among the local community.
