Program details:

On the occasion of International Women Day, the Faculty of Law, the ICFAI University, Himachal Pradesh successfully organized a Legal Awareness Program at Gram Panchayat, Mandhala

The theme of the Legal Awareness Camp was "Empowering Women through Legal Awareness and Access to Justice"

Law students from the ICFAI University, Himachal Pradesh actively participated in the program by presenting a street play and delivering speeches focusing on women's rights and relevant laws. The session aimed to create awareness about the offences defined under various laws and the corresponding punishments, while also educating women about their legal rights and available remedies.

During the program, Pradhan Ms. Lata Devi and Secretary Ms. Hemlata of Gram Panchayat Mandhala were present. From The ICFAI University, Assistant Professor Dr. Shilpa Thakur and Assistant Professor Ms. Pragya Singh, along with law students, participated in the event.

The teachers and students of the ICFAI University delivered informative lectures on women's empowerment, highlighting important legal provisions related to women's rights and spreading awareness about the availability of free legal aid services for those in need.

The program received an enthusiastic response from the members of the Gram Panchayat and the local residents. Around 50 villagers attended the event and actively engaged in the discussions and activities.

At the end of the program, Pradhan Ms. Lata Devi appreciated the efforts of the teachers and students of the ICFAI University for spreading valuable legal awareness among the villagers and for empowering women with knowledge of their rights.
