

IUHP successfully conducted a Mock drill in order to practice functioning of water hose & fire extinguisher on January 31, 2020

IUHP successfully conducted a Mock drill in order to practice functioning of water hose & fire extinguisher. A central alarm system rang and all employees and students left the University building immediately and gathered in the playground, where all were advised and guided to natural and manmade disasters by the experts.

